THE DOMINICAN ROSARY CONFRATERNITY

The responsibilities are as follows:

1. Be a baptized Catholic who has made a First Confession.
2. Say the full 15 decades of the rosary at least once a week. This means just 5 decades a day, but must say the 15 mysteries (Joyful, Sorrowful and Glorious) over a one-week period. The minimum number of rosaries said is just three a week.
3. Possess a blessed rosary. The normal blessing the SSPX priests do (Benedictio coronarum sacratissimi Rosarii B.M.V. – Rituale romanum Appendix no. 35) is correct for the Confraternity requirement.
4. Children who want to join on their own (parents not joining) must be at least 16 years of age.
5. None of the rules oblige under pain of sin.
6. There is no required ceremony, simply turn in the membership form.
7. Each individual, even a 7-year-old, must put his own signature.

The graces you receive are too many to enumerate here, but some of them are as follows:

1. During your life and after your death, you share in all the prayers, Masses, penances and good works of the great Dominican family.
2. 100 years and 100 Quarantines (1 quarantine = 40 days); once a day, for members who devoutly carry a rosary about with them.
3. Over 30 popes have endowed the Confraternity with special indulgences, some are listed in Pope Leo XIII's Constitution Diuturni temporis, Sept. 5, 1898.
4. For further information see The Raccolta under items #361 and #368. The recitation of the rosary without membership in The Confraternity carries only a few indulgences. Quote from item #361: "Note. – Indulgences vi and vii, with many others not recorded in the Raccolta, can be gained only by members of the Confraternity of the Holy Rosary."
5. Naturally a meditated rosary benefits your soul, regardless of membership in the Confraternity. Nevertheless the greater power of the rosary is within the Confraternity as given to us by Holy Mother Church in all her indulgences.

Membership forms are on the back of this flyer. If you need more forms, make copies. Return all forms to: Rosary Secretary P.O. Box 134, St. Mary's, KS, 66536.
