

27. - To be sure to keep the body of the saint who died in their house, the abbot of Fossa Nova and his monks move his body during the night. But he appears to the abbot in a dream ordering him to return his body to public veneration (medallion).