

29. - In 1369, the Preachers obtained that the body of the saint be transferred to one of their churches: to the convent of the Jacobins in Toulouse (where the Dominican Order was founded). Accompanied by the brother of the king of France, the Duke of Anjou, the transfer was particularly solemn and attracted more than 150,000 pilgrims.